Diversity and Inclusion in Risbygate Sports Club

Introduction

This Policy sets out our commitment to creating a diverse and inclusive Club, our Code of Conduct (page 8) and Reporting Procedure (page 2) and it supports our overall aims for diversity and inclusion that are to ensure that:

- Sport at Risbygate is diverse and inclusive,
- Diversity and inclusion are embedded in our Club's culture and our behaviours,
- We create a culture where inclusive leadership thrives,
- We take a proactive approach using positive action to ensure that communities and individuals are valued and able to achieve their full potential.

To achieve these aims, we believe that everyone involved at the Club has a vital role to play in promoting diversity and inclusion – proactively promoting safe and inclusive sport and taking action against all forms of discrimination.

We are proud to have a Diversity and Inclusion Policy that demonstrates our commitment to making all sports at our Club diverse and inclusive. The commitment to diversity and inclusion is upheld by all sporting associations - Lawn Tennis Association (LTA), Bowls England, English Indoor Bowls Association (EIBA), English Bowls Federation, England Squash (ES) and Petanque England.

These commitments are fully supported by the Executive Committee of the Club.

Together we can make a positive difference to people from different backgrounds to participate in sport at our club.

Thank you.

Diversity and Inclusion Policy

1. Policy Statement

This Diversity and Inclusion Policy, Code of Conduct and Reporting Procedure are applicable to Risbygate Sports Club.

As a Club, we contribute actively to enable more people to play tennis, bowls, squash or petanque more often, and in a manner that it is safe, inclusive and fair. This applies regardless of a person's age, disability, religion, race, sexual orientation, gender reassignment status, socio-economic status or any other background.

We recognise that many concerns and/or disclosures may have both safeguarding and diversity and inclusion elements to them. This Policy reflects this through its reporting procedures, which replicate the safeguarding concern reporting procedures.

This Policy strives to minimise risk and to support our venue, programmes, events and individuals to deliver and experience a positive experience for everyone. The Reporting Procedure on page 2 outlines how to respond to safeguarding or discrimination concerns/disclosures.

2. Use of Terminology

We have adopted the following definitions to explain our approach to diversity and inclusion:

Discrimination – treating someone in a less favourable way and causing them harm, because of their age, disability, gender reassignment status, marriage or civil partnership, pregnancy or maternity, race, religion or belief, sex or sexual orientation

Diversity – acknowledging, celebrating and respecting the differences between groups of people and between individuals. We will work to ensure that people can be assured of an environment in which their rights, dignity and individual worth are respected, and in particular that they are able to enjoy their sport without the threat of intimidation, victimisation, harassment or abuse.

Harassment – unwanted conduct related to a relevant protected characteristic, which has the purpose or effect of violating an individual's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for that individual. The focus is on the perception of the complainant not the intent of the perpetrator. Employees can complain of behaviour they find offensive even if it is not directed at them.

Inclusion – ensuring that sports are equally accessible to any member of the community so they can be fully involved in whatever capacity they choose; and that they are supported to achieve their potential in any capacity e.g. player, employee, volunteer, coach or official. We will work to ensure that people have a genuine and equal opportunity to participate to the full extent of their own ambitions and abilities, that they feel respected and valued and are not singled out, with regard to their age, disability, religion, race, sexual orientation, gender reassignment status, socio-economic status or any other background.

Positive action – Risbygate Sports Club is committed to taking positive steps to counteract the effects of physical or cultural barriers – whether real or perceived – that restrict the opportunity for all sections of the community to participate equally and fully. We will ensure that we institute, support and contribute to appropriate measures or initiatives that enable access to sports and participation in associated activities by people from any group that is under-represented or has difficulty accessing it and that they can do so with dignity and without being singled out.

(See Appendix A for full glossary of terms)

3. Scope

Risbygate Sports Club has direct safe and inclusive responsibility for:

- Staff, consultants, coaches and officials they employ or who work at the venue;
- Volunteers;
- Venues they own;
- Events and programmes they run; and
- Ensuring all accreditation requirements are met by accredited coaches, officials and venues.

We recommend and support the development of good diversity and inclusion practice to:

- Accredited coaches, officials and venues;
- Players, parents and carers;
- Volunteers recruited by other organisations;
- Venues hired by or on our behalf;
- Organisers of Club Events.

This Policy is in line with national legislation (see appendix B for details of the relevant legislation) and applicable to our Club, specifically to every person and place that we have direct safe and inclusive responsibility for.

4. Responsibility for implementation of the Diversity and Inclusion Policy

Diversity and inclusion is everyone’s responsibility: not responding to discriminatory or unacceptable language and behaviour is not an option.

- The Club’s Executive Committee and Chairman have overall accountability for this Policy and Reporting Procedure, for being the strategic lead on diversity and inclusion and for ensuring compliance with the relevant legislation (see Appendix for details).
- The Club’s Chairman and Safeguarding Officer have overall responsibility for implementation of the Policy.
- The Chairman and Safeguarding Officer of the Club are responsible for updating this Policy and Reporting Procedure in line with legislative and organisational developments; for developing a strategic and proactive approach to diversity and inclusion, and for responding to discrimination concerns.
- Risbygate Sports Club’s Safeguarding Officer is responsible for supporting the Club to identify where diversity and inclusion support is required, to implement safe and inclusive procedures and to promote diversity and inclusion principles, including the Safeguarding and Reporting Procedure, for all programmes, events and individuals including players, parents and carers.

- All staff, consultants, coaches, officials and volunteers involved at the Club are responsible for raising diversity and inclusion concerns with the Club's Safeguarding Officer as outlined in the Reporting Procedures.
- Players, parents and guardians are responsible for upholding the Code of Conduct and Reporting Procedure.
- Risbygate Sports Club is committed to:
  - formally adopt this policy,
  - take steps to ensure that our committees, members, participants and volunteers behave in accordance with the Policy including, where appropriate, taking disciplinary action under our constitution;
  - ensure that access to membership as well as access to participation is open and inclusive;
  - publish accurate information about the location and accessibility of our facilities.

Where there is a diversity and inclusion concern/disclosure, the individual who is told about, hears, or is made aware of the concern/disclosure is responsible for following the Concern Reporting Procedure above.

5. Breaches of the Diversity and Inclusion Policy, Standards, Code of Conduct and Reporting Procedure

Where there are concerns that diversity and inclusion good practice has not been followed, all staff are encouraged to follow our Club's Reporting Procedure. Consultants, coaches, officials, volunteers and players are encouraged to:

1. Complain directly to the person or organisation and seek resolution. In the first instance, this can often resolve many disputes or concerns.

2. If required, contact the NSPCC Whistleblowing advice line: 0800 028 0285; help@nspcc.org.uk

3. Seek further advice from the Equality Advisory Support Service a call on 0808 800 0082. For further information their website is: <http://www.equalityadvisoryservice.com/app/ask>

If someone comes to you with a concern around discrimination, listen to their complaint, reassure them and advise them of the routes listed above (1-3).

Breaches of this Policy and/or failure to comply with the outlined responsibilities may result in the following:

- Venues – Potential removal of accreditation by the relevant sporting body.
- Staff – disciplinary action leading to possible dismissal and legal action.
- Contracted consultants, officials and coaches – termination of current and future roles and possible legal action.
- Recruited volunteers – termination of current and future roles and possible legal action.

Actions taken by staff, consultants, volunteers, officials, coaches, venues, clubs and/or events outside of the Club that are seen to contradict this Policy may be considered a violation of this Policy.

Where an appeal is lodged in response to a safeguarding decision, an independent appeal body such as Sport Resolutions may be used. Their decision is final.

Code of Conduct

All members of staff, coaches and volunteers agree to:

- Prioritise the well-being of all children and adults at risk at all times;
- Treat all children and adults at risk fairly and with respect;
- Be a positive role model. Act with integrity, even when no one is looking;
- Help to create a safe and inclusive environment both on and off court/rink;

- Not smoke, drink alcohol or take drugs of any kind on Club premises or whilst representing the Club at competitions or events;
- Talk to the Club Safeguarding Officer about any concerns or worries they have about themselves or others.

All parents/carers agree to:

- Positively reinforce your child and show an interest in their sport;
- Use appropriate language at all times;
- Be realistic and supportive;
- Never ridicule or admonish a child for making a mistake or losing a match;
- Treat all children, adults, volunteers, coaches, officials and members of staff with respect;
- Behave responsibly at the venue - do not embarrass your child;
- Accept the official's decisions and do not go on court or interfere with matches;
- Encourage your child to play by the rules, and teach them that they can only do their best;
- Deliver and collect your child punctually from the venue;
- Ensure your child has appropriate clothing for the weather conditions;
- Ensure that your child understands their code of conduct;
- Adhere to your venue's Safeguarding Policy, Diversity and Inclusion Policy, rules and regulations;
- Provide emergency contact details and any relevant information about your child including medical history.

Appendix A:

Glossary of terms

Bisexual or Bi: refers to a person who has an emotional and/or sexual orientation towards more than one gender.

Bullying: can involve any form of physical, emotional, sexual or discriminatory abuse. It can also include cyber-bullying – using social media or mobile phones to perpetrate bullying.

Direct discrimination: treating someone less favourably than another person because of a protected characteristic.

Disability: A person having a physical or mental impairment that has a substantial and long-term adverse effect on that person's ability to carry out normal day-to-day activities.

Discrimination: treating someone in a less favourable way and causing them harm, because of their age, disability, religion, race, sexual orientation, gender reassignment status, socio-economic status or any other background.

Discrimination by association: discrimination against someone because they are associated with another person who possesses a protected characteristic.

Discrimination by perception: discrimination against someone because of the belief that someone possesses a protected characteristic.

Diversity: acknowledging and celebrating the differences between groups of people and between individuals.

Equality: treating everyone with fairness and respect and recognising and responding to the needs of individuals. Taking positive actions to address existing disadvantages and barriers affecting how people engage with and participate in sport.

Ethnicity: the social group a person belongs to, and either identifies with or is identified with by others, as a result of a mix of cultural and other factors including language, diet, religion, ancestry and physical features traditionally associated with race. Ethnicity is essentially self-defined and may change over time.

Gay: refers to a man who has an emotional, romantic and/or sexual orientation towards men. Also, a generic term for lesbian and gay sexuality - some women define themselves as gay rather than lesbian.

Gender identity: this is an individual's internal self-perception of their own gender. A person may identify as a man, as a woman, as neither man or woman (non-binary) or as androgyne/polygender.

Gender reassignment: The process of changing or transitioning from one gender to another.

Harassment: unwanted conduct related to a relevant protected characteristic, which has the purpose or effect of violating an individual's dignity or creating an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment for that individual or creates an intimidating, hostile, degrading, humiliating or offensive environment. The focus is on the perception of the complainant not the intent of the perpetrator. Employees can complain of behaviour they find offensive even if it is not directed at them.

Hate crime: crime that is targeted at a person because of hostility or prejudice towards that person's disability, race or ethnicity, religion or belief, sexual orientation or transgender identity. This can be committed against a person or property.

Homophobia: the fear, unreasonable anger, intolerance or/and hatred toward homosexuality, lesbian gay and bisexual people whether that person is homosexual or not.

Inclusive leadership – leaders who are aware of their own biases and preferences, actively seek out and consider different views and perspectives to inform better decision-making. They see diverse talent as a source of competitive advantage and inspire diverse people to drive organisational and individual performance towards a shared vision. They communicate authentically and honestly in a way that inspires trust, loyalty and well-being.

Inclusion: recognising that people from different backgrounds may have different needs and expectations and may experience barriers in trying to access sport. An inclusive venue is one that takes steps to attract and engage with people from many different backgrounds and meets their needs so that everyone has a positive experience and has the opportunity to achieve their potential.

Indirect discrimination: a practice, policy or rule which applies to everyone in the same way, but that has a worse effect on some people than others.

Lesbian: a woman who has an emotional romantic and /or sexual orientation towards women.

Monitoring equality: refers to data collection and analysis to check if people with protected characteristics are participating and being treated equally. For example: monitoring of the number of people with a disability who play tennis at our venue.

Positive action: a range of lawful actions that seek to overcome or minimise disadvantages (for example in employment opportunities) that people who share a protected characteristic have experienced, or to meet their different needs.

Pregnancy and maternity: in the non-work context, protection against maternity discrimination is for 26 weeks after giving birth, and this includes treating a woman unfavourably because she is breastfeeding.

Protected characteristic: refers to a characteristic, whether perceived or real, which places someone within a minority group protected by the Equality Act of 2010. These may be defined by their age, disability, religion, race, sexual orientation, gender reassignment status, socio-economic status, marital status or any other background. See Appendix B for the full legal definition.

Race: refers to the protected characteristic of race. It refers to a group of people defined by their race, colour, and nationality (including citizenship) ethnic or national origins.

Radicalisation, extremism and terrorist behavior: Radicalisation is the process by which a person comes to support terrorism and/or forms of extremism. Extremism is vocal or active opposition to fundamental British values, including democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of different faiths and beliefs. There is no single way to identify an individual who is likely to be susceptible to extremist ideology. The internet and the use of social media can be a major factor in the radicalisation of people.

Reasonable adjustment: What is considered reasonable will depend on all the circumstances of the case including the size of an organisation and its resources, what is practicable, the effectiveness of what is being proposed and the likely disruption that would be caused by taking the measure in question as well as the availability of financial assistance.

Religion or belief: religion has the meaning usually given to it but belief includes religious and philosophical beliefs including lack of belief (e.g. atheism). Generally, a belief should affect your life choices or the way you live for it to be included in the definition.

Sex: refers to the biological makeup. The legal sex is usually assigned at birth and has traditionally been understood as consisting of two mutually exclusive groups, namely men and women.

Sexual orientation: a person's emotional, romantic and/or sexual attraction to another person.

Trans: an umbrella term to describe people whose gender is not the same as, or does not sit comfortably with, the sex they were assigned at birth. Trans people may describe themselves using one or more of a wide variety of terms, including (but not limited to) transgender, cross dresser, non-binary, genderqueer (GQ).

Transphobia: the fear, unreasonable anger, dislike, intolerance or/and hatred toward trans people, whether that person has undergone gender reassignment or is perceived to have done that.

Transsexual Person: someone who has started the process of changing their gender identity is undergoing or has undergone gender reassignment.

Unconscious bias or implicit bias: this refers to a bias that we are unaware of, and which happens outside of our control. It is a bias that happens automatically and is triggered by our brain making quick judgments and assessments of people and situations, influenced by our background, cultural environment and personal experiences.

Victimisation: when someone is treated badly because they have made or supported a complaint or grievance.

Appendix B:

Legislation

The Equality Act 2010<sup>1</sup> legally protects people from discrimination in the workplace and in wider society. It replaced previous anti-discrimination laws with a single Act, making the law easier to understand and strengthening protection in some situations. It sets out the different ways in which it is unlawful to treat someone.

It is against the law to discriminate against anyone because of:

- age
- being or becoming a transsexual person
- being married or in a civil partnership
- being pregnant or on maternity leave
- disability
- race including colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin
- religion, belief or lack of religion/belief
- sex
- sexual orientation

These are called 'protected characteristics'.

People are protected from discrimination:

- at work
- in education
- as a consumer
- when using public services
- when buying or renting property
- as a member or guest of a private club or association

People are also protected from discrimination if:

- they are associated with someone who has a protected characteristic, e.g. a family member or friend
- they have complained about discrimination or supported someone else's claim

Discrimination can come in one of the following forms:

- direct discrimination - treating someone with a protected characteristic less favourably than others.
- indirect discrimination - putting rules or arrangements in place that apply to everyone, but that put someone with a protected characteristic at an unfair disadvantage.
- harassment - unwanted behaviour linked to a protected characteristic that violates someone's dignity or creates an offensive environment for them.
- victimisation - treating someone unfairly because they've complained about discrimination or harassment.
